Dear Friends:

R.Y.T.M.O. (Reaching Youth Through Music Opportunities) is a 501c 3 non-profit organization, based in Anaheim, CA. whose mission is to EDUCATE, EQUIP and EMPOWER youth ages 14 to 24, through music, music technology and the arts. Many of the youth we serve are from under-served and/or disenfranchised communities throughout Orange County.

Since 2003, R.Y.T.M.O, has graduated over 2,000 youth with occupational skills training related to the music industry, such as film, television, video-gaming and recording. Many have gone on to complete their high school diplomas, obtain employment or pursue higher education. Our formal partnership with Berklee College of Music in Boston MA has allowed students to receive free online courses in music and technology as well as scholarships to this prestigious music institution.

We are proud to announce this year's 8th annual "JAZZ GENERATIONS" in August 2017. Our goal is to raise $20,000 to send our talented R.Y.T.M.O. students to the Berklee College 5 week summer performance program. Each year, Jazz Generations features legendary jazz musicians sharing the stage with talented R.Y.T.M.O. students... an event you don't want to miss!
